

The City Star, January 30, 2007

Cornerstones

Large or small, Marc will pour all his creative talent into your project's design.

Marc Lindsell Architecture

Marc Lindsell has plenty of renovation and green building construction projects in his queue.

Working mostly in the Bay Area, Marc and his business partners offer innovative design combined with strong financial and construction management expertise. Marc emphasizes really listening to his clients and creating a space in harmony with their needs – even to the point of reining-in clients whose architectural wishes are in discord with their budget!

Find design in harmony with you, your budget and the environment at 501 Cortland Ave. San Francisco, CA